3. The Debtors are authorized, in their sole discretion, to continue their prepetition business operations, policies, and programs and pay any accrued but unpaid prepetition Trade Claims, on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business on Customary Trade Terms or as may be necessary to secure a Vendor's agreement to continue business with the Debtors on Customary Trade Terms, up to the amount set forth for each category of Trade Claims set forth in the Motion.

4. The Debtors will provide the Court, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, via email, with a list of holders of each category of Trade Claims set forth in the Motion and the amounts owed as of the Petition Date and any amended lists, as applicable. Prior to any change in the characterization of a Trade Claim holder or amounts owed on the list of holders of each category of Trade Claim and amounts owed, the Debtors shall provide one (1) Business Day's notice of the amendments or revisions to such list to the U.S. Trustee, via email. If the Debtors are unable to reach an agreement with the U.S. Trustee on any amendments to the list of holders or amount owed, the Debtors may request a hearing before the Bankruptcy Court to determine the appropriateness of any such amendments. The Debtors shall maintain records of any payments made and if requested shall provide, via email, records within seven (7) business days to the U.S. Trustee or counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

5. The form of Trade Agreement, substantially in the form attached to the Motion as Exhibit C, is approved in its entirety. The Debtors are authorized to enter into any such Trade Agreements. The Debtors shall condition payment of Critical Vendor Claims upon the execution of a Trade Agreement.

6. Notwithstanding paragraph 4 of this Interim Order, the Debtors may (a) in their reasonable business judgement, negotiate, amend, or modify the form of Trade Agreement, and (b) decline to condition payment of Critical Vendor Claims upon the execution of a Trade Agreement.

7. Regardless of whether a Trade Agreement has been executed, if any party accepts payment hereunder and does not continue supplying goods or services to the Debtors in accordance with trade terms at least as favorable to the Debtors as the Customary Trade Terms then, subject to the entry of a final order on the Motion from this Court: (a) any payment on account of a prepetition claim received by such party shall be deemed, in the Debtors' sole discretion, an improper postpetition transfer and, therefore, recoverable by the Debtors in cash upon written request by the Debtors; (b) upon recovery by the Debtors, any prepetition claim of such party shall be reinstated as if the payment had not been made; and (c) if there exists an outstanding postpetition balance due from the Debtors to such party, the Debtors may elect to recharacterize and apply any payment made pursuant to the relief requested by the Motion to such outstanding postpetition balance and such supplier or vendor will be required to repay to the Debtors such paid amounts that exceed the postpetition obligations then outstanding without the right of any setoffs, claims, provisions for payment of any claims, or otherwise.

8. The Debtors are authorized to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein.

9. Nothing in this Interim Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due prior to the date of the Final Hearing.

10. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed: (a) an admission as to the validity of any prepetition claim against a Debtor entity; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' right to dispute any prepetition claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any prepetition claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Interim Order or the Motion; (e) a request or authorization to assume any prepetition agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors' rights or the rights of any other person under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; or (g) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) satisfied pursuant to the Motion are valid, and the Debtors expressly reserve their rights to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens. Any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

11. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized and directed to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

12. Any Critical Vendor that accepts payment from the Debtors on account of all or a portion of a Critical Vendor Claim pursuant to this Interim Order shall be deemed to (a) agree to the terms and provisions of this Interim Order, and (b) have waived, to the extent so paid, any and all prepetition claims, of any type, kind, or priority, against the Debtors, their assets, and properties.

13. The contents of the Motion satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b).

14. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

15. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

16. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion (including, without limitation, making copies of this Interim Order, the Motion, and any materials or other information related thereto available in any local language in a jurisdiction in which the Debtors or their affiliates operate).

17. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
